

Sunday 10th November

Following Jesus in our fear

1. Fear of the unknown (Mark 10:32-34)

2. Fear of our failures (Matthew 26:57-58)

3. Fear of death's curse (Matthew 27:55-56)

Questions for our midweek Growth Groups and personal reflection

What are some of the greatest fears people can have?

In what ways can we be a mixture of faith and fear?

1. Fear of the unknown (Mark 10:32-34)

Why do you think some of those who followed Jesus were also afraid?

Why is it difficult at times to trust Jesus with the direction he has for your life?

How is Jesus like Aslan the lion, and how should this encourage us to keep following him?

2. Fear of our failures (Matthew 26:57-58)

What were Peter's fears as he sat in the courtyard of the high priest?

What failures do we fear in our Christian life?

What assurance do we find from Peter's life that Jesus' abundant forgiveness is greater than our deepest failures?

3. Fear of death's curse (Matthew 27:55-56)

What were the women fearing as they watched Jesus' crucifixion from a distance?

How does Hebrews 2:14-15 completely change our perspective on death?

What will help you to receive more of Jesus' perfect love which drives out fear (1 John 4:18)?
